

WALES & WEST

By Helen Triggs

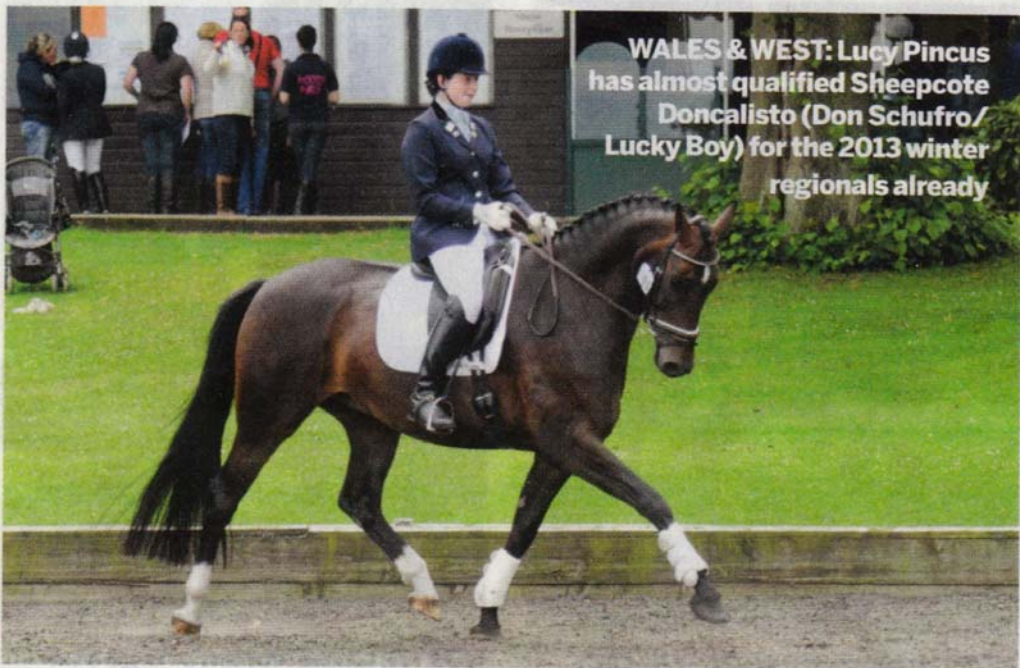

TEENAGER Lucy Pincus won three classes on home-bred horses at Kings EC, Herefords (23-24 June), achieving scores of more than 75% in each class.

Sheepcote Doncalisto has already qualified for the summer regionals at novice and elementary and, after winning both novices classes, he is well on his way to winter qualification, too. The six-year-old gelding is by Don Schufro out of a Lucky Boy mare.

Lucy's father David said: "Lucy has done the work herself. Doncalisto is already doing advanced movements in a baby manner at home."

Lucy won the novice freestyle on Sheepcote Fiesta, a horse David was riding until a heart attack forced him to hand over the reins. Fiesta is by Furst Heinrich out of a Sheepcote Wurlizer mare and this was only her third show.

"I don't think I'll be getting her back," said David.

WALES & WEST: Lucy Pincus has almost qualified Sheepcote Doncalisto (Don Schufro/Lucky Boy) for the 2013 winter regionals already