

CENTRAL: I Go Hugo is having a second career with Tom Graham

Tom Graham had a successful week too, winning won both elementaries on plus-70% scores with Lorraine Richardson's 16-year-old gelding I Go Hugo.

"He's having a second career after hunting," said Tom, who runs a competition and livery yard in Oxfordshire and trains with Harry Payne and Serena Pincus.

Tom also won the medium 61 on his own seven-year-old mare Diora (Dimaggio-Glucksall).

"This was her first show in a year, as we've been concentrating on training at home," he said.

Tom and his advanced ride Twingo, an 11-year-old gelding by Kigali, also won the intermediate I at Solihull RC, West Midlands (8 September).
