

Lucy Pincus on Sheepcote Doncalisto

ALLENS HILL, WORCS

4 January

By Selene Scarsi

Lucy Pincus was a multiple winner at medium and advanced medium, posting the only plus-70% score of the day in the medium qualifier on Sheepcote Doncalisto.

The home-bred is by Don Schufro out of Calista (Lucky Boy/Compromise), a dam who produced, among others, David Pincus' grand prix horse Wurlitzer.

"He went quite well, with good carriage and balance — we just need to make sure every movement is tidy enough, now," said 16-year-old Lucy.

Her father and trainer David added that the eight-year-old stage by stage — we take every day as it comes, without aiming for anything in particular". The Sheepcote philosophy is allowing the combination's talent to blossom.